HISTORICAL BACKGROUND (DISCUSS IMPORTANT PERSONS AND EVENTS ASSOCIATED WITH THIS STRUCTURE): This building was constructed in 1905; it appears on the 1908 Sanborn fire insurance map but is not present on the 1900 edition. An advertisement in the 30 June 1905 Littleton Independent describes C. Kalinowski's "New Store Room, Next to Bakery" (2570 Main). The Dana Downing Grocery was located in this building (then addressed as 329 Main St.), according to the 1905 Littleton city directory. Downing purchased the grocery stock of C. Kalinowski and moved it and his own stock into this building in July 1905; the building was then described as "the big daylight store." Downing was born in Lucerne County, Pennsylvania, in 1873 and lived in that state until coming to Littleton in 1894 to live with his brother Charles. He entered the grocery business in Littleton with his brother and others in 1901 as the Littleton Mercantile Co. He married Grace Dunstan in 1902 and entered the grocery business as a sole proprietor in 1903. He died unexpectedly of complications resulting from appendicitis in January 1906. His brother Charles assumed operation of the grocery, which was sold to W.H. Everett later in 1906. The building is identified as a general store on the 1908 Sanborn map. On the 1921 and 1932 Sanborns the building (addressed as 265 W. Main St.) is labeled a hardware store with a tin shop on the rear; the 1932 city directory shows S.A. Noyes Hardware Co. at the address (then numbered 235 W. Main St.). By 1939, the Beatrice Creamery (Ellen Smiley, mgr.) was located here. The 1949 Sanborn map shows the building divided into two storefronts and a variety of firms occupied the building during the 1950s and early 1960s, including: Art's and Bill's Cleaners (1953); Main Street Liquors (1953-55); Farmers Insurance Group (1959-65); Arapahoe Servicemaster (1962); Southwestern Drywall (1965); and the Littleton Chamber of Commerce (1965).

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE: This building is associated with the historic commercial development of downtown Littleton, having been erected in 1905 and having housed a grocery store, a general store, a hardware store, and creamery. The building, although altered, represents early twentieth century commercial construction in Littleton through its brick composition, flat roof, corbelled cornice, and double-hung sash windows with stone sills and lintels.
